

'Pitaji' M D Panchbhai Foundation

(NGO registered u/s 8 of Companies Act)

DECEMBER 2024

NEWSLETTER

Programs Launched

- Shelter for students: "EduStay" We provide temporary accommodation for ambitious students who cannot afford to pay for their accommodation while preparing for competitive exams

Upcoming programs

- Second study class in Nagpur
- Third study class in Gondia
- New support project for differently abled/blind students

Foundation's November 2024 Acheivements

- With the successful implementation of "Mission Pub Print", where we published and distributed 10,000 booklets to increase awareness of the foundation, the team at Pitaji Foundation were able to identify 6,000 potential members. We are actively doing the outreach and have documented 2,000 interested members
- Our dedicated team is continuing to research opportunities to support financially challenged differently abled students.

'Pitaji' M D Panchbhai Foundation

Tanuja Somkuwar

Ratnadeep
Gautamnandigowri

Study Class Leader and EduStay Student Profile

Teacher: Study Class

Currently enrolled: Bachelor of Arts at Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Nagpur, India

Tanuja is a 24-year-old salaried teacher of the foundation. She has been teaching the foundations' study class since July 2024. Her father works as a billing agent at a distribution center. Mother works at a bank. Tanuja also has a younger brother who is currently working and studying. She is interested in learning computer programming. She aspires to become an IAS officer. As a teacher she is very kind and patiently manages the students. She is very articulate and responds well to the students' questions. She is diligent and never fails to conduct the class. The foundation is extremely thankful to Tanuja for her dedication and effort.

EduStay Student

Preparing for Police Sub-Inspector Exam
Hometown Bhandara, India

Parents are farmers. Ratnadeep was eagerly seeking monetary and accommodational support to pursue his aspirations. Ratnadeep met some of the leaders of Pitaji MD Foundation at the Mission Pub Print event in October 2024. He expressed his interest in joining Pitaji Foundation's mission and also worded his ambition and financial difficulty. The foundation is very excited to support Ratnadeep in pursuing his dream of successfully clearing the PSI exams.